

Kabul traffic system needs urgent attention. See Page 2

Air pollution major threat to Kabul citizens' lives. See Page 3

IMF revives SGBN bailout for Pakistan's economy. See Page 4

World Cup 2022 play-off draw: Ronaldo and Portugal on collision course with Italy. See Page 5

UN upgrades Nepal & Bangladesh to group of developing nations. See Page 6

Afghanistan wants good relations with all countries, PM Hassan Akhund

KABUL: The acting Prime Minister (PM) of the country, Hassan Akhund, said that Afghanistan wants to have good relations with all countries, including the neighbors and regional countries. He said that the Islamic Emirate wants to have good relations, economic ties and co-existence with all countries. Akhund said that Afghanistan will not be involved in any country from Afghanistan and will not be involved in any country from Afghanistan. He said that the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan is focused on its own country, not on other countries. He said that the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan is focused on its own country, not on other countries.

Doha talks enters third day

KABUL: The delegation of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan (IEA) for the second day held talks with the EU representatives, a press release from the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan said. The delegation of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan for the second day held talks with the EU representatives, a press release from the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan said. The delegation of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan for the second day held talks with the EU representatives, a press release from the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan said.

Turkish ambassador and Finance Minister talk over strengthening ties

KABUL: Acting Finance Minister of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan, Mullah Habibullah, received Turkish Ambassador Chah Ergun and his accompanied delegation on Monday (today), the press report. The acting PM also called on Afghanistan to get involved and build the country, including the cooperation with people in the neighborhood. The Kabul Times

Officials discover over 70 ancient artifacts dating back 2 thousand years

KABUL: A total of seventy-five ancient stone tools have been discovered in the archaeological site of the National Museum of Afghanistan, said Fakhri Rahimi, director of the National Museum of Afghanistan. The artifacts, he said, included pottery, metal items that were used for various tools and weapons. He said that these were also a number of small stones which have been used in the museum. He said that these were also a number of small stones which have been used in the museum.

IEA delegation discusses cooperation with Qatar

KABUL: Acting Foreign Minister Mullah Hassan Akhund held a meeting with Qatar representatives on Saturday. Representatives from Ministry of Education, Health, Finance, Security as well as Da Afghanistan Bank were also accompanying the Foreign Minister. Various political, economic, educational issues were discussed during the meeting. Foreign Minister Akhund said in a statement that the country is with the AQ and people are willing to always help them. On the other, Afghan delegation thanked the representatives for their effective and positive work in previous negotiations and other humanitarian assistance. The Kabul Times

72 girls complete professional training program in Jauzjan

KABUL: A total of 72 girls have completed training program in northern Jauzjan province in order to boost their economic and social status. The program, which was launched in 2019, had faced many problems and challenges, but now the girls have the capacity to sell the economic cycle of their family. A number of graduate girls said that the income they gained through this profession helps them to financially support their families. Saida, a graduate of the program, said that in order to attend the program she had to face many problems and challenges, but now she has the capacity to sell the economic cycle of their family. The Kabul Times

Workshop for government spokesmen held

KABUL: The second training workshop for the government spokesmen was held at the National Training Center (NTC). The workshop aimed at enhancing the capacity of government spokesmen, strengthening public relations activities and conducting activities of departments, charge with media and better managing the flow of information and communication. The workshop was attended by the representatives of the Ministry of Education, Higher Education and Scientific Research, Ministry of Health, Ministry of Agriculture, Irrigation and Livestock, Ministry of Transport, Public Utilities, Urban, Forestry and Wildlife, Ministry of Statistics and Information Office, the Afghanistan Border Service, General Directorate of Intelligence and Security, and the National Directorate of Security. This is the second workshop for the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan in the past five months, back to the newly appointed government officials. The Kabul Times