KABUL: The 800-year-old Minaret of Jam is in danger of a total collapse as devastating floods hit Ghor province.

The Minaret of Jam is located in Ghor province, Afghanistan. It is a UNESCO World Heritage site. It dates back to 1203 during the reign of the Buldhana Dynasty.

The floods have caused the river to overflow its banks, posing a serious risk to the historic Minaret. The Ministry of Information and National Heritage has called on people to pay attention to protect the Minaret.

According to reports, the Minaret of Jam has overflown its banks, covering it with water and mud. The observers are saying that the collapse of the Minaret will be a blow to the heritage properties of the country after the destruction of the Apron of the Apron Bank.

US considers Pakistan based Lashkar-e-Taiba threat to it in Afghanistan: Pentagon

Pentagon has said that there is a threat from the Pakistan based Lashkar-e-Taiba to the US in Afghanistan. The LeT, designated a global terrorist organization by the US, was responsible for the attacks in the neighboring countries.

For Operation Freedom's Sentinel, the Department of State designated Pakistan based Financial Action Task Force (FATF) as one of the countries that are not taking effective steps to combat terrorism. FATF has called Pakistan to take concrete steps against terror groups operating from its soil.

Since 2010, more than 600 surgeries have been conducted under the Malalai centre and other centres, with 45 this year. The treatment was successful for 70% of the patients, and 90% of the survivors were able to work again and start over with their lives.

Among the survivors, Laila lived with fistula. Most of the time, I was ashamed to tell anyone that I had fistula. Most of the time, I was marginalized and vulnerable. That's why I learned to do any of that properly. I felt fed up of my life. I was not able to go out because of bleeding. I was not able to walk as I did before. I was not able to work. I was not able to bear a child, husband and family. I was not able to take care of my condition because of chronic infections. It also caused me to be a new life. I am happy, healthy and can start over with my life. I am a capable woman.
