

Amambashidi, who said she was privileged to work with the President of Afghanistan and lead UK's diplomatic mission in the country. She referred to the new chapter of co-operation between Afghanistan and the international community and expressed her country's support for Afghanistan. Praising President Ghani's efforts for national, regional and international consensus for Afghan peace process, Amambashidi said that UK was supporting an independent, united, neutral, dem-

Time for us to ensure safety of Afghans, int'l allies: VP Saleh

KABUL, Feb. Vice President Amrullah Sahai met with Cofes Michael, UN Under-Secretary General for Safety and Security, at his residence in Kabul on Tuesday evening, saying that it was time for Afghan government to ensure safety of its citizens by providing Afghan people and international partners, a statement said yesterday.

Discussions centered of political and security disparities, the statement from the UN said. "Our partners are not satisfied with the UN's growing & finding more peaceful means to solve the problems," said Sahai.

As an observer & distant witness of Afghanistan's Mo. Gilaud bringing in more weapons in UN ambassadors' offices, Sahai said the UN was not involved in the conflict, he quoted his brother, an appointed by the government, supporting the support and contribution of UN ambassadors in Afghanistan.
Sahai said the UN was not gracious intervention by international actors to help Afghan stand on their feet and not let government to do more with less resources to deliver services and ensure safety and security of Afghans as well as international and UN missions in Afghanistan.

USO Michael Gilaud's continuation of UN's unsuccessful presence in Afghanistan, the statement added. The Kabul Times

KABUL: Deputy Foreign Minister for Political Affairs Mirwais Nab, EU Political and Security Committee Head Sofia Ermacber, and Ambassadors of the European Union member states in Belgium, in a virtual meeting discussed the latest developments on political and security affairs in Afghanistan, the Afghan Peace Process, and the dynamics of cooperation's endurance between Afghanistan and the EU. Mr. Mefta statement said yesterday.

Expressing gratitude to the EU for its cooperation with Afghanistan since the last two decades and the sacrifices made by the EU member states to ensure peace and stability in Afghanistan, Nab said that he signed the Mefta statement, called the EU program in 2020

Afghanistan Conference General Secretary, Mr. Mefta said that the EU fight COVID-19 as a symbol of sincere friendship and solidarity between the EU with Afghanistan.

Underlining the recent devel-

Foreign Minister further emphasized the significance of the EU-Afghanistan cooperation along with the international community to the peace and prosperity in Afghanistan.

Expressing the statement by the AFAS, EU Council, and the ist attack on Sayed al-Shihada High School in Kabul, National Civil and Security Committee Executive Members and Deputy Executive Asst and the

Sep 17