

Rashid Khan helps Lahore Qalandars to late victory over Peshawar Zalmi in PSL

KABUL: India takes on Afghanistan in their final Group F clash in the second round 2021 FIFA World Cup and 2021 AFC Asian Cup joint qualifiers at the Jawahar Lal Nehru Stadium in Dhaka, Qatar, on Tuesday.

The competition-leading Lahore Qalandars had 115 runs over Peshawar Zalmi as the second game in the first double-header since the resumption of the Pakistan Super League finished in the early hours of Friday morning.

The Qalandars slipped to 25-4 after 11.2 overs before Ben Dunk (48) and Tim David combined in an 81-run partnership to seal the innings. David, who finished unbeaten on 44 from 36 balls, then shared a late 47-run stand with James Faulkner (22) to lift the Qalandars to 178.

Faulkner took two wickets in his first over, the second of the innings, to leave Peshawar in early trouble before Rashid Khan took a pair in the 10th to keep the Qalandars in control.

David resumed 5-20 in the second Peshawar to 140-8, despite Shaheb Malik's 48-ball 73.

In the earlier game, Babar Azam's unbeaten half century went in vain as Mehlan, Siddique and debutant defender Harpreet Kaur, all King by 17 runs.

David hit 87 off 63 balls, but Mehlan held Karachi to 164-4 through some disciplined seam bowling.

After being put in to bat, Mehlan did well in the end to push his total to 176-5 with left-handed Khushdil Shah remaining unbeaten on 44 off 52 balls.

Fast bowler Imran Khan claimed 2-28 and leg spinner Iftikhar Jaleel picked up the key wicket of Mehlan's captain and Afghanistan's top batsman, Zafar, who had scored 11 runs each as Azam was kept in check by the Miller bowlers.

Azam took his time to settle down and got little support from the other end to challenge the two-egg Azamamed his 10th half century in the PSL, off 62 balls but his five fours and four sixes in the end were not enough to carry his team home.

Khan claimed all his three wickets in the last over and was on a hat trick when he dismissed Shoaib Peres and captain Iftikhar Jaleel.

Quinn-Kumar denied Khan his hat trick before offering a tame catch off the last ball at run-out cover.

South African Rilee Rossouw smashed seven runs in his quick-fire 44 off 24 balls and it looked like Mehlan could cross the 200-run mark.

Rossouw and captain Mohammad Hameed (29) shared a 60-run third-wicket stand off 39 balls as Mehlan reached 107-2 by the halfway stage.

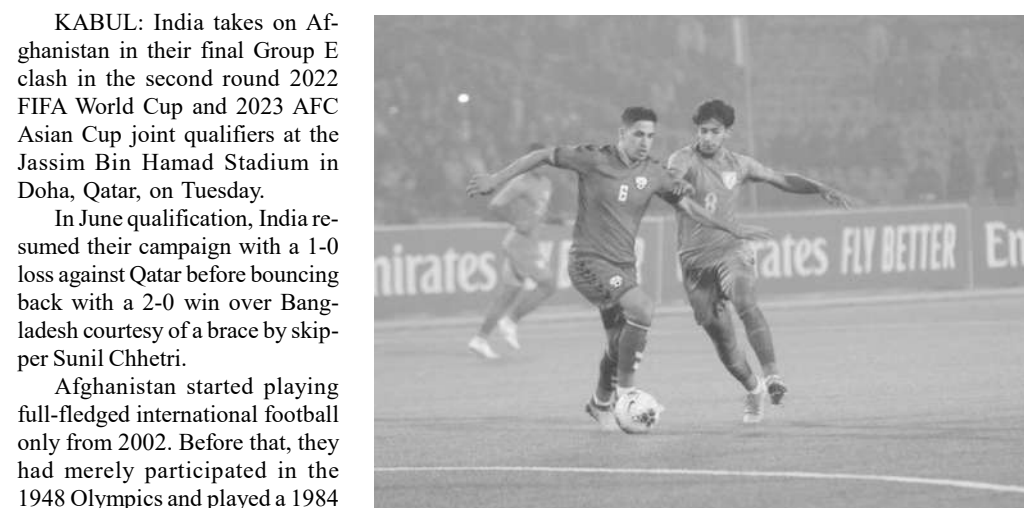

But Karachi hit back through Thoun Peres, who bagged 2-12 off his three overs as Rossouw sliced a catch to long on and Rossouw was run out in the same over while attempting a needless second run.

The left-handed Shah propelled Mehlan's total with an unbeaten 44 off 22 balls when he hammered Mohammad Amir for the 16th-run fast bowler, now retired from international cricket, finished with expensive figures of 4-42 off his four overs.

Pakistan's premier Twenty20 league was moved to Abu Dhabi for its remaining 20 games when it was suspended in March when several players and support staff tested positive for COVID-19 in a bio-secure bubble at Karachi.

The Five Most Decorated Cricket Legends in India

Cricket is undoubtedly India's most popular sport. Over the years, the country has produced cricket legends who ruled the turf in different capacities. And given just how much Indian love cricket, lists of the sport's greatest players have made numerous contributions to the sport. For most Indians, a strong relationship between religion and cricket is what keeps the sport going. Moreover, millions of Indians are always looking for the best online platform where they can place bets on cricket matches.

Notably, Sunil Gavaskar is revered as the greatest batsman in the history of the sport. Gavaskar was known to be a highly aggressive player and a specialist forward bat batsman. The peak of Gavaskar was in the 70s and 80s when he set many world records in the sport. Some contemporary historians referred to Gavaskar as the greatest of all time.

Notably, Sunil Gavaskar made history in his 44th match when he scored 774 runs.

Amil Kamble Amil Kamble made history in test cricket when he took 419 wickets. It is a feat that earned him a special place in the hearts of Indian cricket fans. The birth of Indian cricket legend.
