

India's top govt adviser warns second-wave of COVID-19 not yet over

NEW DELHI: India's deputy prime minister, Narendra Modi, has warned that the second wave of COVID-19 is not yet over, as the government of Uttar Pradesh reports a sharp rise in daily new cases.

Modi said in a video message on Friday that the government is taking steps to control the spread of the virus, but he said the second wave is not yet over. He said that the government is taking steps to control the spread of the virus, but he said the second wave is not yet over.

Bangladesh juice factory owner arrested after 52 killed in blaze

Dhaka: The owner of a factory where at least 52 people died in a blaze in Bangladesh was arrested along with seven other people.

The owner of a factory where at least 52 people died in a blaze in Bangladesh was arrested along with seven other people. The fire broke out on Friday at a juice factory in Dhaka.

UN estimates Pakistan's population at 225.2 million

NEW DELHI: In its World Population Day report released on July 11, the United Nations (UN) has estimated Pakistan's population at 225.2 million, making it the 55th most populous country.

The UN report says that Pakistan's population is growing rapidly, and it is expected to reach 300 million by 2040. The report also highlights the challenges of providing basic services to a growing population.

U.S. shipping COVID-19 vaccines to Indonesia, Bhutan, Nepal

WASHINGTON: The United States is shipping 1 million doses of the Moderna COVID-19 vaccine to Indonesia, with another 1 million doses to Bhutan and Nepal.

The United States is shipping 1 million doses of the Moderna COVID-19 vaccine to Indonesia, with another 1 million doses to Bhutan and Nepal. The vaccines are being shipped to help these countries combat the COVID-19 pandemic.

Israel bans travel to Uzbekistan, Belarus

TEL AVIV: Israel's Ministry of Health has banned travel to Uzbekistan and Belarus, citing high levels of COVID-19 cases in these countries.

The Ministry of Health has banned travel to Uzbekistan and Belarus, citing high levels of COVID-19 cases in these countries. The ban is intended to prevent the spread of the virus into Israel.

The receiving staff at the airport.

The factory where the fire broke out.