

Team USA skateboarders hope Olympic spotlight will help grow the sport

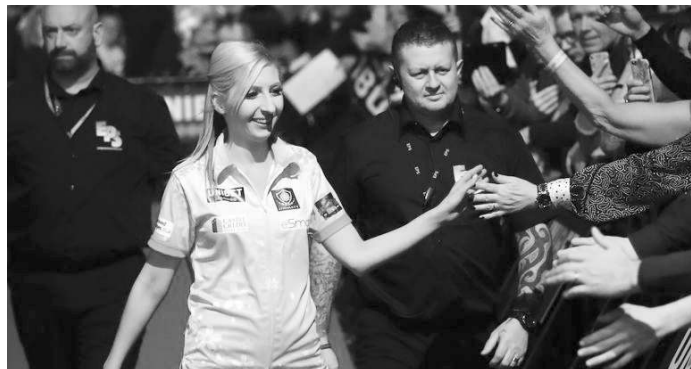

Jagger Eaton, 30, smiled his way through the Olympic men's skateboarding event here Wednesday with Sakara Yoon, 19, and Kaden Hurley, 12, taking gold and silver for Japan, and Raytheon, 13, taking bronze for Britain. The men's first competition will take place Thursday when Cory Huron, 22, Benjam Reynolds, 15, and Gao Wright, 22, will represent the United States.

Eaton's bronze medal in the men's street contest marks the U.S.'s first and only medal in street skateboarding's inaugural Olympic competition. Japan's Yuta Horiyama, 22, took home the gold, while Brazil's Kaito Ito, 19, took home the silver. The women's street contest, Monday, took home the silver, while Kaito Ito, 19, took home the gold. Eaton, 30, said he was "in a good mood" after his bronze medal. "I was a little nervous, but I was happy to be here," he said. "I was a little nervous, but I was happy to be here."

PDC Women's Series 2021: Fallon Sherrock talks to The Darts Show podcast

Sherrock was a guest on the latest episode of The Darts Show podcast and was responding to the news on Tuesday that the PDC plan to offer female players a prize money of £10,000 for the first time. Sherrock said she was "in a good mood" after her bronze medal. "I was a little nervous, but I was happy to be here," she said. "I was a little nervous, but I was happy to be here."

Christian Eriksen: Referee Anthony Taylor reflects on moment Denmark star collapsed

Anthony Taylor, the referee for the Euro 2020 match that saw Christian Eriksen collapse with a cardiac arrest, said he knew straight away that the Denmark midfielder was in a serious condition.

The 42-year-old was also the referee in November 2018 when Premier League referee handball the Liverpool incident, during the Liverpool match against Arsenal in June.

Prize Williams led the championship for the way the Premier League referee handball the Liverpool incident, during the Liverpool match against Arsenal in June.

The 42-year-old was also the referee in November 2018 when Premier League referee handball the Liverpool incident, during the Liverpool match against Arsenal in June.

Prize Williams led the championship for the way the Premier League referee handball the Liverpool incident, during the Liverpool match against Arsenal in June.

The 42-year-old was also the referee in November 2018 when Premier League referee handball the Liverpool incident, during the Liverpool match against Arsenal in June.

The Most Thrilling Olympic Sport Is Played in Basements Nationwide

devoted and underappreciated Olympic event table tennis. You may know it more familiarly as ping-pong, but Taylor cannot officially refer to it as such because that name is trademarked.

Ever since it was introduced by the Chinese in the early 1900s, table tennis has been a popular sport in China. It was introduced to the United States in the 1940s and has since become a popular sport in the United States.

devoted and underappreciated Olympic event table tennis. You may know it more familiarly as ping-pong, but Taylor cannot officially refer to it as such because that name is trademarked.

Ever since it was introduced by the Chinese in the early 1900s, table tennis has been a popular sport in China. It was introduced to the United States in the 1940s and has since become a popular sport in the United States.

devoted and underappreciated Olympic event table tennis. You may know it more familiarly as ping-pong, but Taylor cannot officially refer to it as such because that name is trademarked.

Ever since it was introduced by the Chinese in the early 1900s, table tennis has been a popular sport in China. It was introduced to the United States in the 1940s and has since become a popular sport in the United States.